CONDUCT OF MEETINGS

The Commission meets twice each year to consider CERP provider applications and reports, policies related to recognition, and Commission business.

Policy on Attendance at Open Portion of Commission Meetings: The Commission may elect to make portions of a meeting open to interested members of the public, such as the communities of interest, international observers, and representatives of continuing dental education programs. Those attending are observers only and do not participate in the Commission's discussion. Confidential matters, such as recognition matters, are discussed in a closed session of the meeting that is not open to observers. Observers are asked to pre-register to assist the Commission in making arrangements for the meeting. Pre-registration helps ensure that the individual is notified when the preliminary agenda is available. When appropriate, the Commission may make policy reports and committee summary reports related to agenda items available to non-Commissioners prior to the meeting. Access to the preliminary meeting agenda and non-confidential meeting materials, as appropriate, may be provided through CCEPR's website. The Commission does not assume any travel, hotel or other costs for observers attending the meeting. Observers are not required to pay any registration or materials fee for observing the meeting.

Guests Invited to Commission Meetings: On occasion the Commission may invite representatives from accrediting agencies in other professions or other organizations, as the Commission deems appropriate, to attend portions of Commission meetings as guests, provided they agree to comply with the Commission's Confidentiality Agreement.

Confidentiality of Recognition Applications and Reports: Certain policy portions of the Commission meetings may be open to observers, while discussion of recognition applications and reports, and recognition actions are confidential and conducted in closed session. All deliberations of the Appeal Board are confidential and conducted in closed session. Unless required by law, Commission members and Consultants are not authorized to disclose to other parties any information about a CE provider obtained during the review process or discussed during Commission meetings.

Meeting Materials/Discussions: Background reports and informational materials related to recognition matters are regularly prepared for review by the Commission and its Consultants. These materials and all discussions related to recognition matters routinely remain confidential. The Commission determines when, and the manner in which, newly adopted policy and informational reports will receive public distribution.

Adopted April 23, 2020

CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY

All materials generated and received in the recognition process are confidential. In all instances identifiable patient information must not be submitted to the Commission. If submitted, identifiable patient information should be secured, returned to the sender or securely deleted when appropriate, and must not be improperly used or disclosed. The Commission's confidentiality policies apply to Commissioners, Consultants and members of the Appeal Board. Confidential materials are maintained to ensure the integrity of the continuing education provider and of the recognition process.

ADA CERP Confidentiality: The Commission for Continuing Education Provider Recognition (CCEPR) will keep confidential to the extent permitted by law the name of any provider that has:

1. Initiated contact with the Commission concerning application for recognition;
2. Applied for recognition but has not yet been apprised of a decision;
3. Applied for and been denied recognition.

Further, in response to general inquiries, the Commission will not confirm that a provider has not applied for recognition, nor provide details regarding any weaknesses of recognized provider. All inquiries as to the recognition status of a specific provider will be answered by referral to the published, official list of ADA CERP recognized providers

The following are examples of documents to which confidentiality applies:

- Pre-applications and Applications for recognition submitted by CE providers
- Progress reports submitted by CE providers
- Reviewer evaluation checklists and summaries: The reviewer evaluation checklists and summary score sheets are unofficial documents and remain confidential between members of the Commission and Consultants, and may not, under any circumstances, be released. Members of the Commission and Consultants who review providers' applications and reports and prepare these assessments must keep the contents confidential, except when discussing with assigned co-reviewers, or with the Commission during the confidential portion of the meeting. Further, the names of Commissioners and Consultants assigned to review individual applications or reports will not be released.
- Decision reports and transmittal letters to providers: Information on the recognition status and term granted is public information. However, the formal Decision Report and transmittal letter to CE providers summarizing the Commission's findings remain confidential between the institution and the Commission unless the institution wishes to release this information at its sole discretion.

Surveys: Routinely gathered survey data are used in the recognition process and also provide a national data base of information about the Continuing Education Recognition Program (CERP). The Commission may release to the public any portion of de-identified, aggregated survey data that is collected unless the terms of confidentiality for a specific section are clearly indicated on the survey instrument. Any data which may be reported from confidential subsections are published in a manner which does not allow identification of an individual institution/program.

Identifiable Patient Information: CE providers are instructed to comply with the CERP Policy on Compliance with Privacy Laws. In the event that an application or report submitted by a CE provider includes any information that could identify an individual as a patient, this information must be securely disposed of or securely redacted from Commission records. If a Commissioner, Consultant Reviewer or Appeal Board member believes any identifiable patient information has been inappropriately used or disclosed, he/she must contact the Commission office immediately. CE providers must not provide identifiable patient information to Commissioners, Consultant Reviewers, or Commission staff.

Reminder of Confidentiality: The following statement will be reviewed by the Commission at meetings and provided to Consultant Reviewers at the beginning of each CERP review cycle:

The Commission for Continuing Education Provider Recognition reminds you that confidentiality is an integral part of the recognition process. The Commission must have access to much sensitive information in order to conduct its review of programs. The confidentiality of this information must be protected by CCEPR meeting participants as well as by Consultants participating in the CERP review process. The Commission requires that all Commissioners, Consultants and Appeal Board members sign an Agreement of Confidentiality annually. In signing the Agreement, you indicate your familiarity with the Commission's policy on confidentiality and agreed to abide by it. Unless indicated otherwise, all meeting materials, CERP application and review materials, any identifiable patient information, and all discussions related to the recognition of programs are confidential. Identifiable patients information, which includes any information that identifies or that could be used to identify an individual as a patient may not be used by you for any purpose. If you believe any identifiable patient information has been inappropriately used or disclosed, you must immediately contact the director of the Commission at 312-440-2869. Confidentiality has no expiration date.

Agreement of Confidentiality: I am aware that as a participant in the ADA CERP recognition review process or appeal process, or a participant in a meeting where such matters are discussed, I have access to information which must remain confidential. I have read and understand the Commission for Continuing Education Provider Recognition's policy on Confidentiality and agree to protect the confidentiality of all materials, all identifiable patient information, recommendations and suggestions and discussions before, during and after the Commission's meetings, or during the CERP review process.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST POLICY

Policies and procedures used in the recognition of continuing dental education providers establish a system of checks and balances regarding the fairness and impartiality in all aspects of the recognition process. A central component of the Commission's operations is the impartiality of its decision-making and each member's personal duty to avoid real conflicts of interest or even the appearance of conflicts of interest. The potential for a conflict of interest arises when a member's duty to make decisions in the public's or profession's best interest is compromised by competing interests of a personal or private nature.

Conflict of interest is considered to be (1) any relationship with an institution or program, or (2) a partiality or bias, either of which might interfere with objectivity in establishing continuing education recognition standards or the provider recognition process. Procedures for appointments to the Commission, Consultants and the Appeal Board, conduct of meetings, and conducting reviews support transparency and impartiality.

The Commission believes that conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest must be avoided in all situations in which decisions are being made by Commissioners, Consultants, or members of the Appeal Board. Even where there is no conflict of interest that would require the removal of a Commissioner or the disqualification of a Commissioner-designee, a conflict of interest with respect to a particular issue or decision may arise. No Commissioner, Consultant, or member of the Appeal Board should participate in any decisions in which he or she, or an immediate family member, has a financial or personal interest, has divided loyalties, and/or has a personal stake related to the outcome of a decision.

During a term of service to the Commission, a Commissioner, Consultant or Appeal Board member, must not serve as a consultant to continuing education providers that are seeking ADA CERP recognition from the Commission.

Current and former volunteers involved in the Commission's recognition process may be requested to make presentations to third-parties related to the Commission and its recognition process. Unless the presentation is pre-authorized and prepared by the Commission, the volunteer must make it clear that the presentation is not endorsed by the Commission for Continuing Education Provider Recognition. Further, it must be made clear that the information provided is based only on experiences of the individual and not being provided on behalf of the Commission.

- Position of substantial participation in a business, activity or organization which is also a provider of continuing dental education
- Material financial interest in a business, activity or organization which engages or intends to engage in any transactions or arrangements with ADA or CCEPR, or which competes or may compete with ADA's or CCEPR's business, relationships or activities
- Position of substantial participation in a business, activity or organization which engages or intends to engage in any transactions or arrangements with ADA or CCEPR, or which competes or may compete with ADA's or CCEPR's business, relationships or activities
- Faculty appointments
- Position as a dental examiner, member of a state or regional testing agency or board of dentistry
- Immediate family member who has any of the relationships listed above

Determination of a conflict of interest with respect to a particular matter under consideration by the Commission shall be made by the Chair of the Commission, in consultation with the Director of the Commission, the public member of the Commission and legal counsel. In the event that a conflict of interest is identified in a particular instance, the Commissioner may be instructed to not access documentation related to the topic in advance of or at the time of the meeting. Further, the Commissioner may be asked to leave the room or recuse themselves from the discussion. In cases in which a conflict of interest is less obvious, it is the responsibility of any Commissioner who feels that a potential conflict of interest exists to disclose the potential conflict to the Chair, who will determine the action that is appropriate under the circumstances.

ADA CERP Recognition Process: Commission staff will consult the list of disclosures from Commissioners, Consultants and Appeal Board members and assign applications and reports for review where there is no apparent conflict of interest. Each application cycle, staff will send to all CERP reviewers, including Commissioners and Reviewer Consultants, a copy of the Commission's Conflict of Interest Policy and criteria and a preliminary list of Reviewer Assignments. Reviewers will be asked to identify any relevant affiliations that may exist and notify staff so that the document to be reviewed may be reassigned to another reviewer if appropriate. At any time during the review process a reviewer may notify staff of a relevant relationship that may create a conflict of interest and request that the document be reassigned.

Potential conflicts of interest when reviewing CERP applications and reports include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Close professional or personal relationship or affiliation with the institution/program or key

- personnel at the institution/program which may create the appearance of a conflict of interest;
- Serving as an institutional consultant to the institution/program;
- Being a graduate of the institution/program;
- Being a current employee or appointee of the institution/program;
- Having a family member who is employed by or affiliated with the institution/program;
- Having been an employee of the institutions/program within the last five years;
- Manifesting a professional or personal interest at odds with the institution/provider.

During the portion of the Commission meeting in which the Commission takes action on CERP recognition status, the Chair will remind the Commission of the Conflict of Interest Policy and request members of the Commission to identify any relevant affiliations they may have with any institution/program on which a recognition action will be taken. Any members disclosing such a relationship will be asked to recuse themselves from voting on those institutions/programs.
